CASE NUMBER: 3:22-cr-42-MMD-CLB

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

10 YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court, not to exceed 104 tests annually..
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ANTHONY GEORGE MERRILL YOUNG II

CASE NUMBER: 3:22-cr-42-MMD-CLB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the specific risks posed by your criminal record.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030 (e) (1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

2. You must participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). You must pay the costs of the program, based on your ability to pay.

3. You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. Testing shall not exceed 104 tests per year. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.

4. You must participate in a sex offense-specific treatment program, and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). You must pay the costs of the program, based on your ability to pay.

5. You must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation officer as a means to ensure that you are in compliance with the requirements of your supervision or treatment program.

6. You must not view or possess any "visual depiction" (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(5)), or any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of "sexually explicit conduct" (as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2)) involving children, or "actual sexually explicit conduct" (as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2257(h)(1)) involving adults. These restrictions do not apply to materials necessary to, and used for, any future appeals, or materials prepared or used for the purposes of sex offender treatment.

7. To enable the Computer Search Condition, you must submit your computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to the installation of computer monitoring software by the probation officer.

8. To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow the probation officer to conduct periodic, unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches shall be conducted for the purposes of determining whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software; to determine whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation; and to determine whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

9. You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office will share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office. This condition will be removed if there is no restitution obligation or if Defendant pays any ordered restitution in full.

10. You must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer. This condition will be removed if there is no restitution obligation or if Defendant pays any ordered restitution in full.

	)	STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER
v.	)	REGARDING RESTITUTION
ANTHONY GEORGE MERRILL YOUNG II,	)
Defendant.	)

STIPULATION

The United States, by and through its counsel of record, and the defendant Anthony George Merrill Young II, through his counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

1. On October 12, 2023, Defendant pled guilty to one count of Distribution and Receipt of Child Pornography in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2252A(a)(2) and (b)(1).
2. On January 22, 2024, the Court sentenced Defendant to 60 months of imprisonment followed by 10 years of supervised release. The Court found that Defendant was indigent. Accordingly, the Court did not impose a $5000 special assessment under the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act. The Court instead imposed a $100 special assessment. The Court did not impose a fine.
3. On May 14, 2024, the parties submitted a stipulation and proposed order regarding restitution (Doc. 53). The stipulation listed 12 victims and awarded $3,000 to each victim. The parties, in error, listed the total amount of restitution as $33,000, instead of the correct amount of $36,000. See

Doc. 54. The parties have corrected the error and hereby submit this amended stipulation and proposed order.

4. Victim restitution is mandatory pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2259. In child pornography cases, the court shall determine the full amount of the victim's losses that were incurred or are reasonably projected to be incurred by the victim as a result of the defendant's crime, and then "order restitution in an amount that reflects the defendant's relative role in the causal process that underlies the victim's losses, but which is no less than $3,000." 18 U.S.C. § 2259(b)(2). The court shall resolve any dispute as to the proper amount or type of restitution by a preponderance of the evidence, and the government bears the burden of demonstrating the amount of loss sustained by the victim. 18 U.S.C. § 3664(e).

5. The parties agree and stipulate that the individuals identified as victims below ("Victims") are victims of Defendant's crime of conviction.

6. The parties agree and stipulate that the Defendant shall pay restitution totaling $36,000 to the following victims in the following amounts:

7. Defense counsel has discussed this stipulation with Defendant and Defendant has consented to pay restitution of $36,000 to the victims identified above in the amounts specified.

8. The parties agree that the full amount of special assessment, fine, and restitution is due immediately in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3572(d) and in accordance with the parties' plea agreement.

9. The parties further agree to the following payment schedule:

- a. During imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter and payment shall be through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
- b. Once Defendant is on supervised release, Defendant shall pay restitution in monthly payments of not less than $250 or at least 10% of earnings, whichever is greater, to commence no later than 60 days from placement on supervision.

1           10.     Notwithstanding any payment schedule set by the court, the United States Attorney's
2 Office may pursue collection through all available means in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3613 and
3 3664(m). The restitution payments shall be made to the Clerk of U.S. District Court, Attention: Finance
4 Unit, 400 S. Virginia Street, Suite 301, Reno, NV 89501.

5           11.     The parties respectfully request that the Judgment and Sentence be modified to reflect an
6 Order of Restitution totaling $36,000 be paid to the Victims in the amounts specified.
